RETAIL_ANALYTICS

Introduction

A retail company which sells windows through a dealer's medium feels that they are losing business due to improper performance of the dealer's so find out non-performing dealers.

Define a specific metric and evaluate the Good Performers & Bad Performers.

Identify various insights by exploring data and show why they are not performing well which areas they are not performing well.